Information on the means of redress

If you believe that the rejection of your proposal was based on an error in the selection procedure, you can submit a:

- request for admissibility/eligibility or evaluation review (redress review) — within 30 days of receiving this letter (via your Funding & Tenders Portal account > My Proposal(s) > Actions > Follow-up > Launch new interaction with the EU)
- action for annulment under Article 263 TFEU — within 2 months of receiving the letter (by application to the EU General Court).

 Please be aware that complaints against decisions taken by an EU executive agency or other EU body must be directed against that agency/body, NOT against the European Commission.

 You are free to choose any of the above means of redress. However, in the interest of good administration and procedural efficiency, it is recommended to use first the available administrative review procedures (if any). The objective of these procedures is to re-examine the circumstances of the selection procedure and to reach a final decision on your application. Deadlines for further redress will therefore run as from when you receive our reply with the final position.

For more information and conditions (including on other types of complaints, such as to the European Ombudsman, etc), please see the Online Manual and IT How To.
